

We can doubt, but we can't cower.

We can question, but we can't quit.

We can be afraid, but we can't abdicate.

We can be nervous, but we can't hide.

Your inner critic will tell you, "You are unqualified."

Your inner saboteur will tell you, "This timing is inconvenient."

Your inner voice will cause you to fear in a crisis.

The opposite of unqualified isn't qualified.

The opposite of unqualified is CHOSEN.

So what do you do when leadership chooses you?

You choose to lead.
